day 2

Khajuraho - Panna (50 Kms / 1.30 hrs)

Morning have breakfast at hotel. Later check out from hotel and drive to Panna National Park, enroute visiting Ranoh Falls: an exquisite waterfall formed by River Ken running over one of the oldest rocks on earth, the Vindhya basalt. The River forms a 5 km long, and 30m deep canyon made of pure crystalline granite in varying shades of colours ranging from pink and red to grey. It is popularly called 'The Grand Canyon of India' by the tourists, who have paid a visit to this cascade. There is a series of waterfalls in the canyon. Apart from a few large and small falls which are formed at the assemblage, some of the seasonal falls also appear during monsoons. The place has well laid platforms and watchtowers to view the canyons. Continue drive to Panna: which was a hunting reserve of erstwhile rulers. This protected area was brought under Project Tiger in 1994. The animal life here comprises of tigers, leopards, chowsingha, sloth bear, nilgai, chinkara, hyena, chital, over 200 species of birds, gharial and mugger in the Ken River, and vultures and other raptors as well. Reach Panna and directly transfer to your Hotel. Stay overnight at Hotel.
